

PRIVACY POLICY

Beneve is committed to a best-in-class customer service experience, and we intend to uphold this by providing a private and secure browsing experience. The following policy will help you to understand how we will treat your personal information. As we continue to improve our site/APP and as we take advantage of developments in technology, this policy may change from time to time, so please review this policy on an ongoing basis for revisions and updates.

Information Collection and Use

Beneve collects information from our website and app in several ways. During registration, Beneve asks for information such as your name, phone number, date of birth, social security number, mailing address, and email address. Beneve may ask for your billing information such as credit or debit card, bank account and routing numbers, and identity verification information that is collected through our payment processors on our behalf. We also may ask for information about purchases or other transactions with Beneve and information about your customer service and maintenance interactions with us. You may upload your contact lists for prospecting, images for your profile, and videos, as well as your user-generated content posted on public forums about our products and services.

Once you have submitted this information and have chosen a valid password, you will be able to take full advantage of everything Beneve has to offer. You may also be asked for personal information when you report a problem with our site, or service. Beneve will also collect information using cookies, which are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. This information allows us to automatically link both, you and your customers to individualized personalized accounts. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. Please check your browser's guidelines should you wish to prevent cookies from being saved. Beneve is the sole owner of the information collected on our replicated sites. We will not sell, share, rent, or otherwise distribute any information gathered to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement.

Information Disclosure

When you are on the Beneve site and are asked for personal information, you are sharing that information with only Beneve, its agents, and representatives. As stated above, Beneve will not disclose any of your personal information except when we have your expressed permission, or under special circumstances, such as when we believe, in good faith, that the law requires it. Beneve may also disclose account information in special cases when we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to, or interference with (either intentionally or unintentionally) Beneve's business operations.

Beneve will comply with the requests of all recognized legal and/or governmental entities to aid in the stopping of spam, distribution of illicit sexual content to minors, or any other illegal activity brought to our attention through such channels.
